Hello,

I'll be blunt with you ... Self-descriptions are horribly embarrassing for me. I'm a single-strain and a bit codependent with my twin. We're not conjoined but we mostly go everywhere together, #family. We love being lit for special occasions or celebrations, #friends.

We follow a monotropic diet of premium flowers but rotate with only the most elite genetics, if you know what I mean :P Our style is King Palm exotic, smooth and fresh with a delicious bouquet of terpenes. People say we're sweet and minty. We don't like to brag, but our high 3.48% Limonene profile makes us super tasty!

Our hemp bio-cooling filtering system will leave you enjoying every kiss! We obviously get excited very quickly but strongly believe in consent and good communication. Looking to actively build a community of like-minded folks #420 #YOLO #LGBTQIA2+ #BLM #GGG #GoodTimes #DoubleTrouble

Hello,

I'm looking for friendship, maybe more. I enjoy adding doses of comfort and joy to all moments. I'm a great companion for most things in life ... I would enjoy finding a hiking or a golfing buddy, an intellectual partner to engage in deep conversations about life, love and everything. I wouldn't call myself an artist but I am a creative soul, always looking to create a more beautiful and kinder world around me. I do not have an excessive personality, I don't smoke or drink, I don't mind if you do, but all things in moderation please. I am proud to be formulated with the highest quality cannabis distillate and 100% medium chain neutral organic coconut triglyceride oil. I have no distinctive aroma or aftertaste!

Born and raised just north of Montreal, I am a proud Canadian. I dress myself 100% recyclable material as I am environmentally aware and conscious. Constantly working on myself, I believe people's past can't be totally parted, so I approach all relationships with an open and compassionate heart. Honest and good communication are a must. I hope to match with folks that strive for authenticity and that are ready to build on our connection.

Hope to connect soon,

HASH

Dear Cannabislover,

It's a hard thing to describe one's self ... it feels so vulnerable. First of all, I was born and raised just north of Montreal, 100% Canadian. I am now free to travel for work and leisure throughout Quebec and Alberta. I'm mostly looking for a partner that will appreciate me, despite my thickness and "dark" appearance. I am hopeful that my golden heart on the inside will inspire trust and comfort. My perfect blend of THC and CBD makes me a balanced partner for all experiences. My texture and melt point remind people of good old "Montreal Hash", I'm malleable and a bit inflexible ... I mean, I adapt well, but also old school in a way. But definitely not dry, I love a good laugh.

In my movement practice, I enjoy a good stretch and a deep breath, I also meditate in full pose, I've found that I ego very well with this practice. I try to stay fit and consistent in a clean-crisp body. But I do rotate my strain regularly, to be in trend with the evolving times, I also think it makes me less boring.

All in all, I am pretty intense, but also easy-going and smooth to take in. I provide a nice hugel! every time we meet and I believe I add a nice flavor to special moments, and I do hope to share a few with you.

Ever hopeful,
#

They call me XKOALA because I love a good bear hug that lingers. I have this enveloping aura that soothes and calms and lifts all at the same time. I show up with an impressive bouquet of terpenes, it's a love language I can provide with authentic ease. On a steady rotation of greens, I've always been vegetarian. I want to find a partner to co-create and curate a life of joy and adventure. I'm always packed and ready to go because I love a road trip and nature. If you like a snuggle cuddle bear and want to connect, don't be shy. Let's go for a walk or a hang and see if there's a fit.

Hi there,

The last few years have been tough on everyone and my intentions for this new year is to work on that mind, body, soul, love, connection, work, play balance thing...

Equality for all spheres of life.

I'm made of a high quality hybrid blend of elite cannabis flowers sourced and made 100 % in Canada, distilled in the finest of laboratories to create a smooth and festive pull.

If you enjoy questioning and discussing the standard narratives and imagining existing in a world more balanced with equality as a social paradigm... we'll most likely get along !

Good morning,

I'm an easy going type... I go with the flow but enjoy being prepared for anything. My lucky number is 7, don't know if that speaks to you at all, lol. I'm generally a morning person who sees life as an adventure and would love to match with a potential partner in crime. I'm active and keep fit and I'm very tight with my friends and family. I eat a vegetarian diet and to keep things from getting too routine, I rotate my greens. I am loyal to the hybrid Kush strains for the delicious terpene profiles usually found in these varieties. My favorite thing on a date is to share a kiss and feel the sparks.
